

An Hour for Others Equality and Diversity Statement

An Hour for Others is committed to promoting equality, diversity, and inclusion in all aspects of our work. We believe that everyone should have the opportunity to participate fully in our activities, regardless of their background or identity.

We welcome engagement from individuals of all races, ethnicities, genders, sexual orientations, ages, disabilities, religions, and socio-economic backgrounds. Our aim is to create a community that reflects the diversity of those we serve and to foster an inclusive environment where everyone feels valued and respected.

We are dedicated to ensuring that our recruitment, training, and development processes are free from discrimination and bias. We actively seek to remove barriers to participation and will make reasonable adjustments to accommodate individuals with disabilities.

At An Hour for Others, we recognise that diversity enriches our organisation and enhances our ability to fulfil our mission. We are committed to creating a culture of respect and understanding, where all voices are heard and everyone can contribute to our work.

This statement reflects our commitment to equality and our belief that diversity is essential to achieving our goals.
