BACA Anatomical Art Competition

BACA members from the UK and Ireland are invited to submit an original drawing, painting, sketch, or digitally created artwork for the BACA 2023 Anatomical Art Competition. The artwork must demonstrate a clear connection to anatomy. The focal point of the image must be anatomical, and anatomy depicted in the image must be correct; however, inclusion of non-anatomical objects is acceptable. The artwork may be representational/figurative or abstract. This year theme is "Anatomy in 2023".

Eligibility:

The competition is open to BACA members from the UK and Ireland. There are two categories:

- Student and early-career category: BACA members who are undergraduate or postgraduate students who are enrolled in a full-time programme at a recognised teaching institution, and professionals (anatomists, medical artists, clinicians) whose last educational qualification (first degree, master's, or PhD) was NOT more than five years ago (must be a BACA member).
- Professional and specialist category: professionals (anatomists, medical artists, clinicians...etc.) whose last educational qualification (first degree, master's, or PhD) was more than five years ago (must be a BACA member).

More information on how to be a member is available on BACA website

Image specification:

Images should be no smaller than 2 MB and no larger than 5 MB. Images should be JPEG files with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi.

President: Professor Peter Dangerfield, Secretary: DR Meena Swamy, Treasurer: Mr. Neil Ashwood

Submission:

- Entries to be submitted to baca.communication@gmail.com by 16:00 hours BST, 30th November 2023, as attachments. Your submission will be acknowledged. Late entries will not be accepted.
- The submission consists of two parts:
 - An image representing the artwork (single colourful graphical image as a JPEG or TIF file with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi, maximum size of 3.0 MB)
 - Completed submission form (found below).
- By submitting an image, you are confirming that you give BACA the right and permission to use your image in BACA's website/newsletter/promotional materials and other media.
- By entering the competition, you thereby accept the competition rules.
- By entering the competition, you agree and acknowledge that BACA is permitted to receive and keep your registration data. All personal information will be used by BACA in accordance with its Privacy Policy.
- Entries submitted:
 - Must be owned and authored by the submitting author.
 - Must not contain personally identifiable information or watermarks or signatures.
