

Aetiological Investigations for Hearing Loss in Children

Aetiological Investigation of the babies identified through the Newborn Hearing Screening Programme and diagnosed to have a hearing loss (from mild to profound), also covering investigation of older children, unilateral and progressive hearing loss and Auditory Neuropathy Spectrum Disorder.

The annually run course will give delegates a good opportunity to meet leaders in the field of aetiological investigations for hearing loss in children and running established services, and also network with colleagues new to the field.

Who should attend?

Any professional providing an Aetiological Investigation service for children with permanent hearing loss. Preference will be given to those who have

Topics covered:

- Current National guidelines for Aetiological Investigation of permanent childhood hearing impairment (from mild to profound)
- Roles of CMV, Imaging, Ophthalmology, Vestibular Assessment and Genetics of hearing loss
- Investigation of unilateral and progressive hearing loss

Course Director:

Dr Shankar Rangan, Consultant Audiovestibular Physician (Paediatrics), Wirral University Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust, Merseyside

FEES:

To be Confirmed
Payment with booking, please
Cancellation fees apply

For further information, or to request a place on the waiting list, please email theaetiologycourse@gmail.com

In person at:
RCPCH
5-11 Theobald's Rd
London
WC1X 8SH