

RAISING A CONCERN & WHISTLEBLOWING

We all have a duty to speak up if we have concerns about patient care and patient safety in our work place.

BAPM has a guide to provide you with information about how to raise concerns and where to seek support and guidance within the neonatal safety community.

www.bapm.org/whistle

British Association of Perinatal Medicine

