

Role Description – Staff Education and Wellbeing Lead for BAPM Executive Committee

Title:	Staff Education and Wellbeing Lead
Accountable to:	BAPM Officers and Membership
Term of office:	3 years from September 2025 (plus up to 1 year optional handover and support to new representative when term of office ends.)
Who can apply:	Any ordinary BAPM member based in the UK or Ireland.
Remuneration:	Unpaid, but reasonable travel expenses will be covered
Workload:	Estimated 2-4 hours per week (may be more if you volunteer to help with additional projects.)

---

The primary focus of this role is to take a proactive role in the work of BAPM with special responsibility for promoting and facilitating BAPM's work on staff education and wellbeing.

As an Executive Committee (EC) member for BAPM you will be expected to attend regular meetings as well as undertake project work relevant to your experience and expertise. All BAPM EC members are actively involved in the delivery of the organisation's strategic plans.

What BAPM can offer you:

General

- A central role in influencing BAPM's work both in developing standards and delivering education to neonatal professionals
- A chance to learn about and influence the organisation and delivery of neonatal services at national level
- Opportunities to network with a wide and diverse range of professionals in perinatal care
- Exchange of knowledge and expertise

Experience in management and leadership skills

- Committee work
- Project organisation and time management
- Chairing working groups and sessions at educational meetings
- Strategic leadership of a major area of BAPM work

Career development

- Peer mentorship and feedback
- Evidence of involvement in BAPM work for appraisal as well as career and salary progression

What BAPM will expect from you:

- Attendance at EC meetings (These are held roughly every quarter. We expect there to be 2 face to face meetings and 2 virtual meetings per year.)
- Contribute to the programmes for the BAPM Spring and Annual Conferences
- Contribute to the development of CPD resources for BAPM members
- Suggest topics for educational webinars
- Get involved in other organisational and strategic work for BAPM.
- Represent BAPM as needed on outside bodies.
- Promote BAPM membership and its work to others and encourage their engagement.

Support

The role is supported by the BAPM Officers, BAPM Office and other Executive Committee members. Outgoing committee members will also be available for a handover period once you take up the role. Representatives are reimbursed for travelling expenses and reasonable subsistence where appropriate to attend the Executive Committee and other relevant meetings.

Process

Nominations should be submitted on the appropriate form by the advertised deadline by email or post to the BAPM office. If more than one nomination is received a ballot of the membership will be required and applicants will be asked to submit a statement of up to 250 words to support their application, outlining relevant experience and reasons for applying for the role.

Acting as a trustee

BAPM is a registered charity and all Executive committee members of BAPM will be named trustees of the organisation. Being a trustee is an official role recognised by law.

You and your co-trustees must:

- Make sure that the charity complies with its governing document and the law.
- Act in your charity's best interests
- Manage your charity's resources responsibly
- Act with reasonable care and skill
- Ensure your charity is accountable

To find out more about becoming a charity trustee please read the Essential Trustee guidance from the Charity Commission.