We are delighted to be returning to a two-day Halloween Festival this year. You can expect violins and cellos, playtogethers, Suzuki groups, folk music, choir, orchestra and a teachers' concert. Not everyone will get to do everything but we'll all have a wonderful time and get to dress up and have fun making music together!

The workshop costs £120 full price with a £12 discount for siblings and there are £25 places available for children from low-income families. Everything will happen in and around Suzuki Hub.

This workshop is for violinists from total beginner up to book 6 and cellists from total beginners up to book 2. Teachers this year include Kate Conway, Kimberley Wong, Helen Butterworth, Helen Styles and Rosie Toll.
