

Dinghy Cruising Association Constitution

1. Name and Purpose

1.1 The name of the Association is the Dinghy Cruising Association. The Association is divided into local groups whose members sail in the same area. The burgee of the Association is blue with a yellow fly and a white triangle on the blue.

1.2 The purpose for which the Association is formed is to promote and encourage all forms of cruising in dinghies and similar small craft individually or in company at informal meets suggested by members.

2. Membership

2.1 Anyone aged 18 or over, whether the owner of a boat or not, who is interested in dinghy cruising is eligible as a candidate for membership. Membership of the Association shall be open to anyone interested in the sport on application regardless of sex, disability, ethnicity, nationality, sexual orientation, religion or other beliefs.

2.2 Honorary membership of the Association may be proposed by members at any time and conferred for such periods as thought fit by the Management Committee.

2.3 Prospective members who complete an application in the Membership Management System or submit an application form to the Membership Secretary, and pay the necessary subscription, will be admitted to the Association.

2.4 Members should ensure the Association has their up-to-date postal and email address in the Membership database and any notice sent to any one of such addresses shall be deemed to have been duly delivered in writing.

2.5 Every member is expected to read and familiarise themselves with all DCA Policy documents, particularly the DCA Rally Policy and Procedures and Safety Recommendations.

2.6 Members wishing to leave the Association should notify the Membership Secretary of their intentions. However any member who has not paid their subscription within 30 days of its due date will automatically be removed from the list of members.

2.7 Every member undertakes to comply with these rules and any refusal or neglect to do so or any other conduct which, in the opinion of the Management Committee, is either unworthy of a member or otherwise injurious to the interests of the Association shall render the member concerned liable to expulsion by the Committee provided that, before expelling anyone, the Committee shall ask them for an explanation and give them opportunity to defend themselves. The vote on an expulsion shall be by ballot and shall only be carried if not less than three fifths of the members of the Committee vote in favour of the expulsion.

3. Subscription

3.1 Annual subscription rates shall be set by the Management Committee and confirmed by a vote at the Annual General Meeting.

5.8 Most rally hosts write a report to share with other members in the Journal. Regional Secretaries should check that any reports that have been written have been received by the Journal Editor.

6. Management Committee

6.1 The Management Committee (hereinafter referred to as 'the Committee') shall consist of the Officers of the Association and the Regional Secretaries, the Chairperson being nominated from among their number and elected by the Committee for a period of two years. The quorum shall be six.

6.2 The Committee may co-opt a member to fill a casual vacancy caused by death or resignation.

6.3 The management of the Association shall be under the exclusive control of the Committee excepting only the making and alteration of rules. The Committee shall manage the affairs of the Association according to the rules and all surplus income will be reinvested in the Association. No surpluses or assets will be distributed to members or third parties except for small donations to registered charities active within our sport such as the RNLI.

6.4 The Committee shall meet at least every 6 months using video conferencing software. Voting shall be by show of hands. In the case of equality of votes the Chairperson shall have a second and casting vote.

6.5 The Committee may appoint such sub-Committees as it may deem necessary and may delegate such of its powers as it may think fit upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed expedient.

6.6 A member of the Committee, of a sub-Committee or any officer of the Association, in transacting business for the Association, shall disclose to third parties that he is so acting. Only the Committee are empowered to enter into agreements or arrangements with other sailing Associations or Clubs.

6.7 No one shall, without the express authority of the membership in General Meeting, borrow money or incur debts on behalf of the Association or its Membership.

6.8 In pursuance of the authority vested in the Committee by Members of the Association, members of the Committee shall be indemnified by the Members of the Association out of the assets of the Association from and against any liability, costs, expenses or payments whatsoever which may be properly incurred or made by them or any one of them in the exercise of their duties on behalf of the Association wherever the contract is of a duly authorised nature or could be assumed to be of a duly authorised nature and entered into on behalf of the Association.

Should the assets of the Association be insufficient to satisfy such liability, costs, expenses or payments the Committee shall be entitled to a personal indemnity from the individual Members of the Association. The limit of any individual Member's indemnity in this respect shall be a sum equal to one year's subscription at the then current rate of that category of Membership unless the Committee has been authorised to exceed such limit by a General Meeting of the Association.

6.9 The Committee shall be sole authority of the interpretation of the rules.

7. Verifying the Accounts

7.1 At the Annual General Meeting each year a member shall be appointed to check and verify the accounts of the Association for the current year.

8. General Meetings

8.1 An Annual General Meeting shall be held at some place to be named or online using video conferencing software and on some day to be fixed by the Committee. Notice of the date of such meeting and its agenda shall be delivered to the membership at least 14 days before.

8.2 At any general meeting of the Association the currently elected Chairperson of the Committee or, in their absence, a Chairperson elected by those present, shall preside.

8.3 No business shall be voted on at the meeting unless included in the Agenda. Voting shall be by show of hands.

8.4 At any general meeting of the Association each member shall have one vote. Thirty members entitled to vote and personally present shall form a quorum. In case of an equality of votes, the chair shall have a second or casting vote.

8.5 The Committee may, on giving fourteen days notice, call a general meeting of the Association for any specific business the nature of which shall be stated in the summons convening the meeting, and the discussion at such meeting shall be confined to that business only.

8.6 The Committee shall also call a general meeting on the written request of twelve members.

9. New rules, amendments and alterations

9.1 Major alterations and additions to the rules shall only be carried out at a general meeting called by the Committee. Minor adjustments to wording can be proposed and authorised by the Committee.

9.2 Notice of any major alteration or addition to the rules proposed by a member of the Association shall be given to the Chairperson in writing at least one month before any general meeting at which the same is to be brought forward, and full particulars of any such major alterations or additions shall be set out in the notice convening the meeting.

9.3 All such major proposed alterations or additions and any amendments to them which may be proposed and seconded shall be put to the vote of the meeting, and provided that on a show of hands, a majority of two thirds of the votes of those members present and entitled to vote shall be cast in favour of any proposed alterations, additions or amendments then the same shall be deemed to be carried.

10. Application of assets on dissolution.

10.1 Upon dissolution of the Association any remaining assets shall, at the direction of the Committee, be given or transferred to a registered charity and/or the sport's governing body for use by them in related community sports.
