THEORY OF CHANGE

THE CHALLENGES

1. Poor maternal and child health (Afghanistan, Central Asia)
2. High levels of child institutionalisation
3. Social exclusion of children with disabilities

OUR VISION

We strive to ensure that vulnerable children have the best start in life.

CORE APPROACHES TO PARTNERSHIPS

- Sharing information and expertise
- Developing networks of expertise
- Promoting sustainability through capacity development
- Engaging with stakeholders across sectors
 - Good governance

OUR VALUES

- Commitment to local engagement & partnership
 - Respect for human rights
 - Empowering individuals and communities
- Commitment to learning, innovation and exchange
- Promoting inclusion and equality across sectors

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to support vulnerable children and their families in Eastern Europe, Central Asia and Afghanistan and enable them to overcome the barriers of poverty, social exclusion or disability in order to have their rights realised.

WE ACHIEVE THIS THROUGH

1. Strengthening families and communities

- Supporting the development of community-based services;
- Engaging and empowering parents and carers;
 - Facilitating peer support and learning;
- Raising awareness of the rights and needs of vulnerable children.

2. Increasing access to health and social services

- Developing professional capacity;
- Raising awareness amongst families of the right to access services;
 - Improving transport;
- Improving access to community-based and outreach services;
- Supporting parent-led advocacy for improved health and social services.

3. Promoting education for all

- Developing professional capacity;
 - Raising awareness amongst families, professionals, policy makers and the public of the right to inclusive education;
- Improving inclusive school environments;
- Reducing stigma.

4. Supporting and strengthening policy

- Working with local and national government representatives involved in policy development;
- Working with other stakeholders involved in policy development;
- Supporting parent-led advocacy for the rights and needs of vulnerable children and their families.
