CHAUMONT-SUR-LOIRE (FRANCE)
INTERNATIONAL GARDEN FESTIVAL
2027 COMPETITION - GARDENS OF LOVE

Located in the heart of the Loire Valley, whose cultural landscapes are listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Domain of Chaumont-sur-Loire brings together historic heritage, contemporary art and landscape creation. Its International Garden Festival, a true open-air laboratory, has become a key event for landscape and creative design professionals.

In 2027, the International Garden Festival will celebrate its 35th anniversary. For this new edition, the Domain invites garden designers to imagine creations combining creativity, landscape rigour and high-quality execution.

WHY APPLY?

- Create a garden within an internationally recognised Festival
- Experiment at full scale on a plot of around 210 m²
- Present an open-air creation for six months to visitors from around the world
