

DAY 1

09:30 - 10:45	Opening Plenary Video available	Chair Gill Frigerio
	Workforce sustainability: recent policy developments and their implications for careers thinking	Chris Warhurst
	Careers, skills, and sustainability in the West Midlands	Clare Boden-Hatton
11:15 - 12:30	Workshop Session 1
	Option 1 Self-Compassion: A Career Management Superskill	Chair Sarah Finnegan-Dehn Ciara Bomford Glynis Roberts
	Option 2 Video available Evolving career development practice to remain a sustainable profession	Chair Laura Walker Siobhan Neary (Nalayini Thambar)
	Option 3 Career well-being and sustaining the self	Chair Janet Sheath Kate Mansfield
	Option 4 Option 4a: Improving students' engagement in co-curricular employability workshops: Option 4b: Making work decent and sustainable – social justice and inclusivity - Career Pathways with an EDI Focus	Chair Claire Nix Phuong Nguyen Jacy Stewart
	Option 5 Empowering Sustainable Careers: Navigating the Future through Skills, Experience and Continuous Learning - A UK Perspective	Chair Tristram Hooley Juliette Albone
13:30 - 14:15	Plenary 2 Video available	Chair Rosemary McLean
	Addressing burnout to build sustainable careers and prosperity for all	Cathy Brown Deidre Bowen Sally Wilson
14:30 - 15:45	Workshop Session 2
	Option 1 Fulfilling work over longer careers – discover the latest insights from psychology	Chair Derek Osborn Laura Walker
	Option 2 Option 2a: MEEG – Model of Enabling Employment Guidance: a capability informed approach to supporting people experiencing unemployment to access decent and sustainable work and careers. Option 2b: Green guidance and vulnerable groups - between opportunity and luxury: overcoming attitudinal barriers	Chair Nicki Moore Nuala Whelan Eva Kavková Tomáš Šprlák
	Option 3 Option 3a: Could care-full guidance lead to greener careers and greener outcomes? Option 3b: Rethinking career and career guidance in the context of migrant women's solidarity network	Chair Tristram Hooley Vicky Metcalf Sanna Toiviainen
	Option 4 Video available Embedding the concept of Decent Work in career development learning	Chair Jane Artess Fiona Christie Eileen Cunningham
	Option 5 Black Students in White Universities	Chair Janet Sheath Anne Chant
16:00 - 17:00	Plenary 3 Video available	Chair Tristram Hooley
	Enhancing the sustainability of careers in disruptive times	Ans de Vos

DAY 2

09:30 - 10:45	Plenary 4 Video available	Chair Tristram Hooley
Can careers save the planet?		Miriam Dimsits David Blackmore Nat Ward-Smith
11:15 - 12:30	Workshop Session 3
Option 1		Chair Anne Chant
Career guidance for energy transition from international and regional perspective, and attracting young people to jobs in sustainable energy in the UK		Peter Stewart Anna-Lena Müller Rudolf Schröder
Option 2		Chair Cathy Brown
How green is your practice? A workshop to consider how career guidance activities do and can include environmental issues		Korin Grant
Option 3		Chair Rachael Pearson
Option 3a: Critical Perspectives on the Platformisation of Career		Tom Staunton
Option 3b: Towards a universal model for embedding employability in curriculum		Martin Edmondson
Option 4		Chair Janet Sheath
Perspectives on Careers Education		Nicki Moore Shane McLoughlin
Option 5	Video available	Chair Emily Reid
Introduction to the framework for environmentally sustainable career guidance		Miriam Dimsits Tristram Hooley
16:00 - 17:00	World Café	Chair Emily Reid
Sustainable Careers: Navigating Wellbeing, Skills and Environment in Career Development
15:00 - 16:00	Closing Plenary	Chair Gill Frigerio
Embedding Sustainability into Career Development: A Framework for Hope and Action		Candy Ho