

WORLD CAFÉ SESSION: NEXT STEPS

Emily Róisín Reid, Associate Professor and Director of Student Experience, Employability and Progression, Warwick Medical School

*Dr Gill Frigerio, Chair of NICEC and Associate Professor, Centre for Lifelong Learning,
University of Warwick*

Insights

Employers and policymakers

Practitioners

Stakeholder engagement

Research gaps

3 x 15-minute rotations:

Career wellbeing and sustaining the self

- Individual and collective roles in wellbeing in career development, including through the lens of inclusion.

Skills, experience and learning for sustainability

- Sustainability with respect to skills, learning and decent work

Climate crisis, implications for career development work

- Next steps for green career development

Bringing it all together

Facilitators & online chairs to feedback:

- Insights
- Employers and policymakers
- Practitioners
- Stakeholder engagement
- Research gaps

Thank you for participating!

What is next for you?

What is next for NICEC?

