1930 Coalminers who were the Flower Shows Gardeners

Exhibitors Preparing for the Show

Strawberries, gooseberries, black and red currants etc. were grown in abundance in the fields around Burnfoot for many decades in the early part of this century. Large numbers were employed as fruit-pickers, squad supervisors etc. in the summer months. The photograph is of some employees at the fruit-picking at Burnfoot having an outing to Fillion Castle in the 1920's.

Clydeside Trading Society Ltd (CTS) have been supporting the horticultural industry for over 100 years. Our customer base covers a multitude of both trade and public users including the casual gardener, allotments, farmers, garden centres, professional growers, landscape designers, trade bodies, government contracts and societies such as NVS, Chrysanthemum & Dahlia and the Begonia Society.

As a society we have the buying power to source premium retail and professional top name brands, many not available in general stores, in bulk thereby offering you the best possible prices and ranges.

Whatever your horticulture needs, we can provide everything from a humble plant label to lorry loads of compost. We have an extensive catalogue of thousands of products available to cover all of your gardening needs throughout the growing season – we have a yard full of growing media & bark and warehouses stocked with fertilisers, ground cover, plant pots, weed killers, pest control, tools and many other retail & professional products. We also offer a comprehensive Christmas range for making artificial wreathes.

Our shop in Kirkmuirhill is a valuable asset to our business, easy to navigate and allows you to see a selection of our products, appropriate to the current season, and discuss your needs with our knowledgeable staff. Furthermore, our website covers a vast range of our products available, including our out of season ranges.
