Definitions

The words ‘kind’ & ‘cultivar’ are used in the following sense: Sweet Peas, Roses, Carnations etc. are distinct ‘kinds’ of flowers. “Fragrant Cloud”, “Peace”, “Superstar”, are distinct ‘cultivars’ of Roses. An “Amateur” is a person who grows plants, fruits or vegetables solely for enjoyment or for the domestic use of the produce, and that they must not be growing for only “pecuniary advantage” and must have grown or owned the plant/s for, at least 6 months. No Nurseryman, Seedsman, Florist, Market Gardeners, nor their assistants or employees who grow or advertise garden or orchard produce for the purpose of sale can show as amateurs or gardeners
