

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

DEADLINE EXTENDED

Royal Corps of Naval Constructors (RCNC) Annual Maritime Engineering Conference – January 2026

How Maritime Engineers Will Help to

Deliver the Royal Navy's Strategy of the Future

The Royal Navy Strategy can be found at this link Royal Navy Strategy.pdf. The document is OFFICIAL-SENSITIVE and can only be accessed on MODNet.

The RCNC is particularly keen to encourage active participation from everyone, including junior engineers and as such the theme has been specifically chosen to enable a broad range of subjects to be covered with further encouragement being offered in the form of a prize donated by BAE Naval Ships awarded to the best presentation by an associate member (or prospective associate member). If you are working with a junior engineer whose work may be worth presenting, please encourage them to consider this opportunity!

Location: MOD Abbey Wood, Bristol
Date: 28-29th January 2026
Abstract submission by 27 October 2025

Presentations are sought from within MOD, RN, RFA, and industry, and should have a MOD/RCNC sponsor. Presentation slots at the conference will be approximately 20 minutes and content may be up to OFFICIAL-SENSITIVE. Supporting technical papers are encouraged. Please submit proposed presentation titles and abstracts by 27 October 2025 to SDA-RCNC-Conf@mod.gov.uk. Successful applicants will be confirmed soon after.

We still have opportunities for Sponsorship. Please get in touch if your company may be interested. For those wishing to have a Market Stall for interesting technical/engineering demonstrations please contact us as soon as possible (limited space).

Please declare interest in sponsoring, presenting or hosting a stall by email to SDA-RCNC-Conf@mod.gov.uk

The conference will be followed by the RCNC State of the Nation Address on the afternoon of the 29th in the same venue. The classification of this will be OFFICIAL.
