

Journal of Co-operative Studies, 41(1), No 122 – 2008

Guest Editorial - Co-operatives in Australia and New Zealand

Alan Robb, p. 3.

Refereed Articles

The diversity of co-operative structures in New Zealand agribusiness

Keith Woodford, pp. 4-10

Rochdale consumer co-operatives in Australia: A case of rural survival

Nikola Balnave and Greg Patmore, pp. 11-21

Strong bonds: Maintaining a commitment to mutuality in a deregulated environment – the case of Australian credit unions

Leanne Cutcher, pp. 22-30.

Learning from the past: The distress and resuscitation of PSIS 1979-2003

Gordon Boyce, pp. 31-42

Short Articles

Things worth fighting for: Facing down the demutualisers

Race Matthews, pp. 43-50

Book Reviews

Co-operatives and the pursuit of peace. Edited by Joy Emmanuel and Ian MacPherson.

Reviewed by Mary Mellor, pp. 51-52.

New Zealand Credit Unions - the First Forty Years. People Helping People. By Gordon McLaughlin.

Reviewed by Paul A Jones, pp. 52-55

Co-operation's Prophet: the Life and Letters of Dr William King of Brighton with a reprint of The Co-operator, 1828-1830. By T W Mercer.

Re-visited by Professor Stephen Yeo, pp. 55-56.